233. £0.45 Face Value UK Silver pre 1920. Crown 1899 LXIII, F & Double Florin 1889, NF/F. (£25-30)
- 234. GB Trade Dollar 1911. VF. (£30-40)
235. Farthings x 200. Vendor says Geo V (50) & Geo VI/ EII (150). Mixed grades VF to EF. A few with lustre. (£20-30)
236. World Coins x 100. Good mix. Vendor states all UNC or near. (£20-30)
237. World Coins x 100. A similar lot but also includes 2 Aluminium Eliz II Coronation Medals. (£20-30)
238. £3 Face Value UK Silver pre 1920. All Half-Crowns, mainly Victoria & Geo V. A nicely presented group of coins (Vic VG to GF but mainly VG), (Geo V all around GF). No rubbish, all nice for grade, a few with minor rim imperfections. All in new flip-over card pkts with clear windows for both sides. (£190-210)
239. £3 Face Value UK Silver pre 1947. All Half-Crowns & nicely presented as above. Average circulated usually commensurate with age. 1925, GF. 1930, GF. (£70-90)
240. £3 Face Value UK Silver pre 1947. All Half-Crowns & nicely presented as lot 238. Geo V average circulated. Geo VI better than lot Lot 239, especially later ones. (£70-90)
241. £3 Face Value UK Silver pre 1947. All Half-Crowns & all Geo V which are average circulated with no rubbish. Nicely presented as lot 238. 1925 x 2, both NF. 1930 AF. (One run 1920-30). (£70-90)
242. £3 Face Value UK Silver pre 1947. All Half-Crowns. Geo V (5), Geo VI (19). Geo V are average circulated & Geo VI considerably nicer than lots above, most EF or better with lustre. Nicely presented as lot 238. No 1925 or 1930. (£70-90)
243. £3 Face Value UK Silver pre 1947. All Half-Crowns & all Geo VI with much better grades than anything above. All at least EF with most GEF or near BU. All with lustre & presented as lot 238. It's almost a sin to sell coins as nice as this as a job lot. Book price at EF is £240 for the lot but I've only added a little to the estimates above. If you are a dealer these could be sold individually straight out of the parcel they arrive in. (£90-110)
244. £1.25 Face Value UK Silver, pre 1947, all Shillings. Geo V (7) & all nice examples at least VF. Geo VI (18) & all very nice at least EF. Most from both monarchs with lustre. A really nice opportunistic lot which could easily be re-sold either individually or in small groups to make a profit. All presented the same as lot 238. Book price £130. (£40-60)
- 245. Wreath Crown 1929. Very nice, lightly toned GVF/EF. (£140-160)
- 246. Shilling 1787 Variety, no stop overhead. No hearts. Lightly toned with much lustre. Some of the toning is slightly patchy but this does not affect the fact that this is a choice example, EF at least. (£220-250)

247. Sixpence 1758. Beautifully toned & lustrous. Just a little light flecking obv. Exceptional GVF & choice for grade. Book price dictates my estimate but the lower price says 'come & get me' to me. (£40-50)
248. Sixpence 1787, no Hearts. A lovely, lustrous example. NEF & choice for grade. Tiny scratch on bust. (£40-50)
249. Coronation Medal. George IV 1821. Copper Medal by G. Mills. 54mm. Bronze. This is 'The King's Champion' version. The ceremony of the King's Champion is one which has been performed at Coronations by members of the Dymoke family since the 14th C. High relief in EF with much underlying lustre. A few tiny contacts & two rim imperfections, one each side. BHM 1091. Eimer 1142. (£80-100)
250. Queen Charlotte. Medal commemorating Geo III & her Coronation 1761. Bronze 33mm. No signature. This is an oddity, please refer to the picture of the medal before thinking you've found a thousand more on ebay. Obv shows King & Queen conjoined looking left. So far, pretty common but on this medal they have a crown over them. Rev is a crowned Royal Crest, Garter & Motto but not the official one! Excuse me but the lion looks to have a very long, erect member! (At this point the website goes down through over-use.) So there you have it, make of it what you will. I'm calling it a nice GVF (the medal, not the member) with good surfaces/edge. The obv peripheral wording looks like a child's done it & realised half-way round that he's written it too big & can't get it all in. Let me know if you find another like it as I would like to see it. (The Medal I mean). (£40-60)
251. George III Medal. Preserved from Assassination 1800. Bronze 38mm by P Kempson. BHM 486. This is a beautiful example of a scarce medal, choice EF with much underlying lustre although I must admit the angel on the rev holding a shield looks like she trying to adjust a satellite dish, to get a better reception! Seriously though, a very nice specimen indeed.(This medal, not the lion on the previous lot!). (£70-100)
