212. Australia 1995 BU Set. 6 coins 2 Dollar to 5 Cents. KM# MS 29 & priced by them at $125 due to the rarity of the 20 Cents & the availability of the 10 Cents only in the sets. All BU in plastic pack. (£30-50)

Also unofficial 8th Army Medal for entrance into Italy 10 July 1943, brass 31mm. Not rare but at a lustrous AUNC much nicer than all the others being on ebay for ridiculous prices. (£30-40)
215. £2 Face Value UK Silver pre 1920. All Geo V. Just a little better than average circulated. A nice little accumulation. (£120-140)

224. Half-Crowns 1920-29, one for each year. These are too nice to scrap, most are VF, scarcer ones like the 1925 are GF as are some, strangely, of the later dates. The book price in Fine for these coins would be about £40 in total. So that is my starting price. If you are looking for scrap coins then please don't bid £25 because you won't get them. Over the years I have seen dealers selling these types of coins, but not as nice as mine, for double what I am looking for. I have not gone into any detail about issue type such as the ME for example. (£40-60)

225. Half-Crowns 1930-46, one for each year. See the write-up of the lot above to get an idea of what these coins are like. Apart from the 1930 at Fine, these are all at least VF for the Geo V & EF or better for Geo VI, some of his later being BU or very close. The book price for VF coins would be about £100 in total. My bottom line is just £70 & believe me you will not be disappointed. If you like buying scrap silver please do not bid £45 for these because you won't get them. As with the coins in the above lot, these, of course are all individually packeted. (£70-80)
